SUBJECT : Central Intelligence Agency Participation in Service Schools

John
1. An inquiry was made of Colonel/Steel, USA, a member of the Joint Subsidiary Planning Division of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, reference the status of reply to the memorandum from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Joint Chiefs of Staff concerning CIA participation in Service Schools. Colonel Steele stated that the Agency would probably receive a <sup>with in a week</sup> phone call from the Office of the Secretariat, JCS, stating that the Joint Chiefs did not feel that this was a matter concerning overall policy but one that should be referred to the particular Service concerned. In this particular instance, the Department of Army. [Colonel Steele stated that the feeling was that they would rather have civilian personnel represent this Agency in these Schools inasmuch as this proved a valuable liaison and contact with senior members of this Agency. He stated that in instances where it was absolutely necessary to have one [redacted] was certain that the Service concerned would whole-heartedly support the action.]
